Anthony M. DeLongis is an accomplished litigator concentrating his practice in the areas of commercial litigation, general tort litigation, and labor and employment matters. Prior to joining Rathje Woodward, he handled a wide range of complex litigation matters involving retaliatory discharge, § 1983, breach of contract, and catastrophic injury claims. Through his diligent representation in depositions and contested dispositive motion practice, Anthony obtained successful outcomes for his clients.

Anthony received his B.S. in Biology from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and his J.D. from the Chicago-Kent College of Law where he was named to the Dean's Honor List each semester. Anthony is an active alumnus of the Chicago-Kent College of Law, regularly volunteering in the admissions process, taking part in mentorship programs, and participating in classroom trial advocacy exercises. In addition to his legal practice and involvement in the legal community, Anthony is an active member of the Illinois State Crime Commission and the Police Athletic League of Illinois.
